

Donations to the Friends of Philosophy Fund are used exclusively to benefit our students. Our Friends make it possible for the Department to support the activities of the Philosophy Club, to provide the prize in our annual writing competition, to help students travel to philosophy meetings, and to support many other student activities. Contributions to any of the three funds listed below will qualify you as a Friend of Philosophy. If you are already a Friend, we thank you for your past support and we appreciate your continued generosity. If you have not yet joined, please consider doing so by making a donation that will help us enhance our students' studies and experiences at ASU.
